Q&A with Clay Jackson-Litteken, MPH Ph.D. Candidate and Graduate Assistant in the Blevins Lab

If you could be any fictional character, who would you be? Batman because I'd be rich and have cool gadgets.

What was the last experience that made you a stronger person? My husband and I recently adopted a dog... I am not used to being responsible for another living being, so I think this is making me slightly stronger (or at least more patient).

If you were to write a book about yourself, what would you name it? An ugly Western blot – The Clay Jackson-Litteken story.

What song makes you want to get up and dance? Rock Lobster by the B52s.

What chore do you absolutely hate doing? Mowing a lawn.

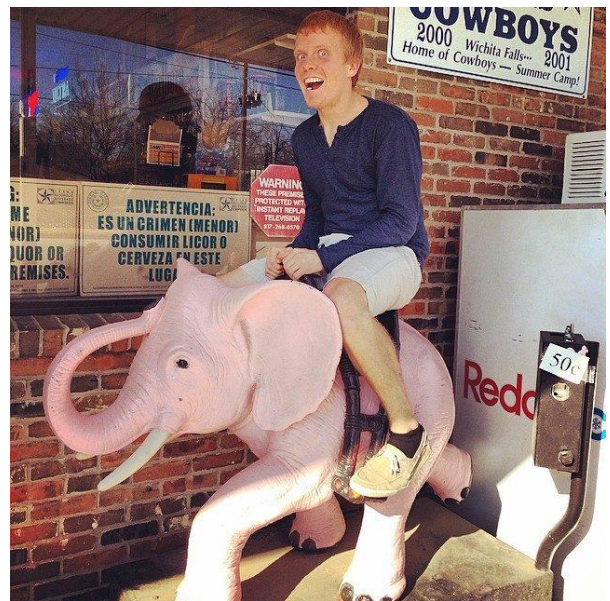

What is your favorite movie? Halloween (Definitely the John Carpenter one)

Where would you like to go on a dream vacation? Any uncrowded beach with a bar.

Do you have a favorite quote? "That's what she said" ~ Michael Scott

What phobias do you have? I absolutely hate spiders.

What is the one thing, you can't live without? Cheese.
